A Hub for Sustainability, Culture and Development at the Courel Mountains

A private non-profit Spanish organization founded in 2010 in the Courel Mountains, in Eastern Galicia, Spain.

Named after the Galician poet Uxío Novoneyra for the preservation and dissemination of his work and ideas.

Working to strenght and internacionalize Creative Cultural Industries as part of a sustainable development model for our community.

Committed to its territory, the mountains where the poet was born and lived for many years. A remote isolated rural area atacked by the phantoms of depopulation but also a landscape of atonishing natural beauty and a long history to be preserved.
